Accommodations

On-campus dormitory

- Exchange students can apply for NTU dormitory. Students must indicate their preferences through the online application system before the application deadline.
- Due to the limited space, dormitory is not guaranteed.

Accommodation fee

- Please refer to our website:
oia.ntu.edu.tw >> Apply to NTU >> Exchange Student Program >> 2020/2021 Admissions >> Application

Note

- Please let us know if students are not arriving at the suggested arrival date.

Requirements

Language

- Students should have at least B1 level for English or Chinese Language Proficiency according to the CEFR (Common European Framework of Reference) as courses at NTU are mainly taught in English or Chinese.

Insurance

- Students must purchase their own insurance in the home country before travelling to Taiwan. They need to provide proof of insurance valid for the entire exchange period for the following:
 - Accident insurance worth a minimum of TWD 1,000,000
 - Medical insurance worth a minimum of TWD 1,000,000
- If the student holds an Alien Resident Certificate (ARC) and has met the six-month minimum residency requirement, the student can choose to join the National Health Insurance (NHI) with limited coverage.

Visa

- Students are responsible for their own visa application before entering Taiwan.
- Students will be held responsible for the acquisition and maintenance of proper visa for their exchange in Taiwan. Please contact nearby Taiwan diplomatic mission for more information.

Course

Course information (including courses taught in English)

- NTU Online Course Information System: nol.ntu.edu.tw

Course enrollment

- The course list for the First/Second Semester is available only from the beginning of August/January and the online course selection begins 2 to 3 weeks prior to the start of semester.
- Students should make a preliminary plan based on previous courses offered and adjust the plan when the latest course list is available. For questions regarding to a specific field/course, please contact the relevant department or the course instructor directly.
- Students are advised to arrive approximately one week before the start of classes to participate in orientation activities. Furthermore, the first two weeks of classes are crucial for students as this is the course add/drop period where students can make final changes to their course schedule.

NTU Credit Requirement

- NTU requires exchange students to enroll in at least 2 courses or 4 credits per semester.
- Students should also satisfy the requirements of their home universities.

Important Notes

- The College of Medicine does not accept senior and graduate exchange students for they are not allowed to enroll in practice courses.
- The Department of Medicine does not accept exchange or visiting students.
- The Department of Economics is under the College of Social Science at NTU. Courses related to economics can also be found in other departments (e.g. College of Management).
- GMBA required courses, EMBA and EIMBA courses are not open to exchange or visiting students.

Others

Free Chinese language courses

Exchange students can enroll in the NTU General Chinese Course which is a complimentary Chinese Language course under the exchange program that offers NTU credits.

Special Request

For a better exchange experience, please inform us in advance if the exchange student requires special care. We would be more than happy to offer our assistance to the best of our ability.

Student Volunteer

All exchange students will get a student volunteer to help with preparation for exchange at NTU.

Orientation Week

Held one week before class begins. All exchange students are required to attend orientation activities.
