Contacts

Head of International Office
Institutional ERASMUS+ Coordinator
Prof. in Mag.a Marina GROGGER marina.grogger@phsalzburg.at

Student Outgoings
Prof. in Mag.a Stephanie BRAMERDORFER stephanie.bramerdorfer@phsalzburg.at

Student Incomings
Prof. in Mag.a Ulrike WEGENKITTL-NEUMAYER ulrike.wegenkittl@phsalzburg.at

Student Placements | Bilateral Agreements
Prof. in Mag.a Martina BACHINGER martina.bachinger@phsalzburg.at Salzburg:
Dreaming spires, green hills and romantic gardens - the city’s attractions are loved by millions of visitors from all over the world. History is evident everywhere, from the ancient Roman period to the Baroque castles of the archbishops.
Students can enjoy the lively atmosphere of the old town with its cafes, old beer breweries, museums, cinemas and pubs. Salzburg is a lovely place to be!

About us:
The Salzburg University of Education Stefan Zweig is a public educational institution which strives for professionalism in its teacher education programmes. The attached training schools are providing students the opportunity of putting theoretical know-how into teaching practice.
The Salzburg University of Education Stefan Zweig has a focus on diversity and inclusive Education. Particular attention is also given to music courses with special emphasis on choir, brass band, folk music and music theory.

Quick facts:
- Founded in: 2007
- Number of teaching staff incl. Part Time: 400
- Students of teacher training: 900
- Students of in-service-teacher training: 10,200
- Students of continuing teacher training: 1,300
- Percentage of foreign students: 9%

Programmes:
Teacher Training
- Primary Teacher Education (BA, MA)
- Secondary Teacher Education (BA)
- Vocational Teacher Education (BA)

Life Long Learning
- Teacher in-service Training
- Post Graduate Courses

International:
A European network of agreements with over 50 partner institutions contributes to the attractiveness of PH Salzburg Stefan Zweig. Teachers and students are encouraged to take part in national and international educational projects, study visits and mobilities.

In addition to the regular teacher training programmes the Salzburg University of Education Stefan Zweig offers a tailor-made International Programme in English for incoming ERASMUS students as well as Austrian students. (34 ECTS)

International Course in English – 34 ECTS

Cultural and Social Field Activities (3 ECTS)
- Students take part in excursions, visits museums, movies, theatre performances, concerts and traditional events in order to get acquainted with various faces of Austrian culture.

Discovering Austria beyond the clichés (3 ECTS)
- Deeper understanding and appreciation of Austria and its main traditional, artistic aspects and an introduction to its political, economic and cultural values.

Insights into Salzburg’s and Austria’s history (2 ECTS)
- The basic understanding of the city’s and province’s historical developments.

German as a Foreign Language. Beginners and intermediate levels (4 ECTS)
- Beginners and Intermediate levels (A1-B1).

English as Foreign Language (3 ECTS)
- Approaching B2

Challenges and Perspectives of European Educational Systems (3 ECTS)
- Cross-cultural discussions and comparison of the different national educational systems.

European Dimension & Intercultural Competences (3 ECTS)
- Overview and evaluation of models of intercultural competence in the educational context.

Teacher’s Personality & Classroom Management (3 ECTS)
- Various classroom management strategies with relation to individual learning styles and based on personal reflection are introduced.

School Placements for Student Teachers (3 ECTS)
- Put teaching into practice: Pre-Primary School (Kindergarten), Primary School, Lower Secondary School and Inclusive Settings.

International Project Management (3 ECTS)
- Projects are implemented through open learning methods and project management tools.

Science is all around - applying laws of science (3 ECTS)
- Reactivation and expansion of scientific knowledge including several forms of application.

Instrumental Music Instruction (1 ECTS)
- Musical diversity and development of an understanding for different intercultural communication and value structures when learning an instrument.