The MA and PhD programs in Political Science train students for future careers in research and teaching as well as non-academic professions in international organizations, think-tanks and political research centers, business world, journalism and government. Faculty members are recognized experts in their areas of expertise and specialization. Along with a broad understanding of the discipline of political science, the program provides specialized expertise in one or more specialized areas (political theory, comparative politics, international relations, Turkish politics), and competence in research methods and techniques.
