LUC The Hague provides a unique combination of world-class scholarly depth, drawn from the oldest university in the Netherlands, with a cutting-edge and globally conscious curriculum that capitalises on its location in the vibrant, international atmosphere of The Hague. It represents a very special opportunity for talented, open-minded, and ambitious students from all over the world to engage in socially and globally responsible education at the very highest level available to undergraduates. The programme makes the most of the finest teaching and resources available and concentrates them in small classrooms of no more than 22 students.

Why Leiden University College?
- The international honours college of Leiden University
- English-taught interdisciplinary bachelor's programme
- Over 300 interdisciplinary courses to choose from
- An intensive and small-scale educational model
- A strong emphasis on academic skills
- Highly international student and staff population
- Located in the International City of Peace and Justice: The Hague
- A unique residential living opportunity
- Freedom and flexibility of the Liberal Arts and Sciences tradition

A Thematic Approach
The goal of our programme is encapsulated in the motto of LUC The Hague, ‘Building Knowledge for a Better World,’ and our graduates aspire to make a real difference in the world around them. The programme component ‘Global Challenges’ is aimed at educating our students to understand the complexity of global issues and problems from an interdisciplinary approach. This includes the academic core consisting of Global Citizenship and Global Challenges courses, as well as the History of Philosophy. There are 6 majors to choose from: Human Diversity, International Justice, World Politics, Earth, Energy and Sustainability, Global Public Health, and Governance, Economics and Development. Both Leiden University and LUC contribute their own dedicated and international faculty to teach our students. There are a whole range of courses available for your study abroad experience!

Courses for Exchange students
Exchange students will select up to 6 courses per semester (3 per block) and take them together with the students of LUC. Course outlines generally become available 4-6 weeks before the start of the semester, but to check our current course offerings, please go to lucthehague.nl/exchange-students.

For further inquiries, please contact LUC’s Exchange Office at Studyabroad@luc.leidenuniv.nl
For course offerings, please visit lucthehague.nl/exchange-students

---

Study Abroad at Leiden University College, The Netherlands

Leiden University College The Hague is the international honours college of Leiden University situated in the world’s capital of peace and justice. Leiden University was established in 1575 as one of Europe’s leading universities and it still is today. The university has earned an excellent international reputation as a multidisciplinary, research intensive university with a global orientation.

Leiden University College The Hague is the international honours college of Leiden University located in The Hague, the world’s capital of peace and justice. Leiden University was established in 1575 as one of Europe’s leading universities and it still is today. The university has earned an excellent international reputation as a multidisciplinary, research intensive university with a global orientation.

---

Universiteit Leiden

University College The Hague

Discover the world at Leiden University
Is Leiden University College the right choice for you? Join us if you:

- Are bright and talented student who likes to work hard and enjoys being challenged
- Have broad interests and an international orientation
- Are committed to make a difference by working on innovative, sustainable solutions for global challenges

Choose your electives from the following areas:
- Global Public Health
- Earth, Energy and Sustainability
- Governance, Development, and Sustainability
- World Politics
- International Justice
- Human Diversity

lucthehague.nl/exchange-students