VISA & RESIDENCE PERMIT

International incoming students are required to enter the Chinese mainland with x-in or x-2 student visa.
1. X-in visa: Issued to those who intend to study for a period of more than 180 days.
2. X-2 visa: Issued to those who intend to study for a period of no more than 180 days.

The X visa is for single entry. Students must apply for the Residency Permit within 30 days after arrival in order to obtain the multiple entries qualification. Detailed information about the application procedures of Residency Permit will be provided after students’ arrival.

Steps to apply for Visa and Residence Permit:
1. Students receive CUHK-Shenzhen Acceptance Letter and study term at least one month before a semester begins.
2. Students apply for Chinese X visa at a Chinese embassy or consulate.
3. Students enter the Chinese mainland with the visa.
4. Students apply for Residence Permit after registration with CUHK-Shenzhen.

Please note:
1. For the latest information regarding visa application, please contact your nearest Embassy/Consulate of China.
2. After students arriving in the Chinese mainland, the X visa for single entry cannot allow students to re-enter the Chinese mainland. Students must stay in the Chinese mainland until the Residency Permit is granted.
3. International incoming students need to register at the local police office within the two-day rule, which is 36 hours after entering the Chinese mainland.

Programme & Activity

Orientation
A mandatory orientation for the incoming students is usually arranged on the first Friday or Saturday before a semester begins. The orientation covers an introduction to student daily life, academic information selection, residence permit application, and tips for life and study in CUHK Shenzhen. A campus tour will also be arranged.

Student Clubs
There are over 50 student clubs. Meeting new friends and participating in club activities will help incoming students make the most of their study experience in China.

Experience China
"Experience China" is a series of activities organized by the Office of Academic Links aiming to help international incoming students understand Chinese culture, history, and development. Usually it includes a city tour, cultural activities, company visits, etc.

International Day
The International Day is an annual event. It is an opportunity for international students at CUHK Shenzhen to exhibit their home country origin and to promote their home universities.
