About the university

Faculties and programs

Teacher Education Primary level | Secondary level | Vocational Education | Teacher Education BA / MA with assistant (Individual support and assistance)

The Salzburg University of Education Stefan Zweig (PH Salzburg) combines professional initial teacher training, in-service training and continuous education of teachers focusing its research on relevant educational needs for the future of society. Its focus is based on personal and social qualifications as well as methodology and profound knowledge. The affiliated training schools enable students to put theoretical knowledge into practice.

A European network of contracts with more than 70 partner institutions contributes to the attractiveness of PH Salzburg Stefan Zweig and supports mobility for teachers and students alike. They are encouraged to take part in national and international development and research projects thus becoming part of a European educational and social community.

Research and teaching at PH Salzburg Stefan Zweig are intended to correspond to the profile of an inclusive university reflecting social diversity. This inclusive approach favours non-discriminatory opportunities including gender, disabilities, migration and social background. Both studying and living this diversity, students are trained in their open-mindedness and therefor contribute with new facets to the profile of future teachers in various pedagogical contexts. The inclusive university understands itself as an organization of learning processes bearing in mind the fact of being "All equal – all different".

The BluE program is a specific access route that allows people with intellectual disabilities to experience university education and participate in university activities – equally to their student peers in a four-year program.

Discover Salzburg

Salzburg is said to be one of the most beautiful and interesting cities in this world, thanks to its beautiful landscape, numerous historic sights and its classical summer festival. Its picturesque baroque old town is also called "Rome of the north", being part of the UNESCO world cultural heritage since 1996. The city has been home to the world famous composer W. A. Mozart, born here in 1756.

With its 150.000 inhabitants, Salzburg is known as the city of Mozart, classical music and university. Due to this, the city provides its students with a large offer of attractive free time activities. Salzburg is a great place to use the bike as a daily means of transportation, providing a great bike lane system. Enjoy the city by bike or walking and discover its many charming cafés, bars, boutiques, markets, museums and cinemas.

Salzburg is known for its lively art scene, both classic and contemporary. Do not miss the beautiful region around Salzburg with its beautiful lakeside district, its hills and mountains inviting you to do both summer and winter outdoor activities. This diversity of cultural and natural activities is a key aspect for Salzburg's high life quality.

Welcome to Salzburg - we are happy to welcome you here and guide you through your study exchange!
