Transportation in İstanbul

Public transport in İstanbul consists of a wide network of bus lines, subway(metro), ferry, tram, metrobus, shared taxi (Dolmuş), taxis, covering the entire city and beyond.

You may check the route planner: <https://nasilgiderim.iETT.gov.tr/en/>

Istanbulkart is the public transportation card of İstanbul, the cheapest and the most efficient way to get around İstanbul. You can access the whole public transportation system of İstanbul via this single transportation card. It is owned and served by the Municipality of İstanbul. These are the cards that you can purchase and use, providing a limited number of passes in public transportation. You can purchase the Istanbulkart from over 2,000 points such as subway, tram, ferry, metrobus and funicular stations via the yellow/blue vending machines or ticket-matics, and via kiosks located by the majority of the public buses' stops.

There is also mobile app for the Istanbulkart, where you can use and load credits online, but as buying the card physically and using it very easy, we don not recommend the mobile app. It is a new app of the Municipality. If you are interested with mobile app, then you can find and read it by searching "istanbulkart" on AppStore or Google Play. Note that the app is in Turkish!

You may find the details here

There is an application called as BiTaksi for calling an available taxi, you may download it from following links:

Touristic Places

History of Istanbul & Religion During its long history, as Constantinople or Istanbul, the city served as the capital of the East Roman, Byzantine, Latin, and Ottoman Empires. Muslims constitute the religious majority. At the same time, many minority religions, particularly Christianity and Judaism, are permanent and respected elements of Turkey's spiritual mosaic, observing their beliefs for over 900 years, with synagogues and churches in cities.

Suleymaniye Mosque

Constructed by the great Ottoman architect Mimar Sinan, Suleymaniye Mosque is the second largest mosque in Istanbul. 16th-century masterpiece, Suleymaniye Mosque was built for Suleyman the Magnificent.

Sultanahmet

Scene of chariot races and the center of Byzantine civic life. There are an Egyptian Obelisk, a stone obelisk and the Serpentine Column which were originally brought by the emperors and used for the decoration of the Hippodrome. Today it's a nice area for picnics and meetings.

The Hagia Sophia

It was the great cathedral of Byzantium for over a thousand years and was the greatest mosque in the Ottoman Empire for five centuries. Keep an eye out for the shallow pits in the stone floor either side of the massive central doorway, created by the shuffling feet of the guards stationed there over the ages. Church of St. Anthony of Padua, Istanbul – Istiklal Avenue – Beyoglu District Istanbul Hagia Triada Greek Orthodox Church, Taksim Square - Istanbul Little Hagia Sophia – Kumkapı, Fatih District Istanbul. It is currently us as mosque.

Mısır Çarşısı (The Egyptian Spice Bazaar):

Built in the 17th century next to the Golden Horn, the Spice Bazaar is the second largest covered bazaar in Istanbul. Originally housing shops selling medicine and spices, the Spice Bazaar continues to fulfil its original function. This distinguished example of Ottoman architecture continues to sparkle with life even today. Open every day except Sundays and National Holidays.

Bağdat Caddesi:

This is like an open-air shopping mall. A very long street full of fashion stores and cafés, Bagdat Street is the place where people go to if they are on the Anatolian side. You can shop, and then have a walk to Caddebostan where you can have a walk through the seashore.

Take a boat trip on the Bosphorus. Ferries, private boats and water taxis on the Bosphorus are one of the most attractive ways to get around the city. Boats can transport you from Europe to Asia in a matter of minutes. You can also use the two bridges if you prefer to travel by car. Try Turkish coffee, baklava (a Turkish pastry) and Turkish delight.

Have a bath in Turkish hammams. If you prefer a historical hammam, you may prefer Cagaloglu Hammam near the Grand Bazaar.

Take a ferry up the Bosphorus to Anadolu Kavağı. The village is surrounded by wooded hills and there are great views from the Byzantine Yoros castle which once controlled the Black Sea approaches. Go to peaceful Princes' Islands in the Sea of Marmara to the south of Istanbul. Four of the nine islands are easily accessible by ferry from İstanbul. Burgazada, and its Greek Orthodox Church of St John the Baptist, is particularly charming.

Istanbul is like a big stage where you can find many cultural events for all tastes. Some of the most important ones are the International Music Festival (June), International Jazz Festival (July), International Film Festival (April), Istanbul Biennale (September), Contemporary Istanbul Arts Festival (November).
