

D.7 Precedences

19. It is required that students pass certain courses (according to the course program), in order to enroll in the following courses.

The following map of precedences must be respected:

To enroll in.....	The student must have completed..	1100. Principles of Microeconomics	1101. Principles of Macroeconomics	1102. Microeconomics	1103. Macroeconomics	1111. Advanced Microeconomics	1200. Principles of Management	1201. Financial Accounting	1301. Calculus I	1303. Linear Algebra	1304. Data Analysis and Probability	1305. Statistics for Economics and Management
1102 Microeconomics	X
1103 Macroeconomics			X
1104 Seminar in European Economics	X	X
1107 Macroeconomic Policies			X		R
1108 Development Economics	X
1111 Advanced Microeconomics	X			R
1112 Industrial Organization	X			R
1113 Global Economics I				X		R
1114 Global Economics II			X		R
1115 Public Economics	X			R
1202 Management Accounting								X
1203 Finance							X	X
1204 Marketing							X
1205 Operations Management							X
1207 Strategy	X			R			X
1211 International Management							X
1212 Global Business Environment			X		R		X
1213 Business Seminar							X
1302 Calculus II									X
1305 Statistics for Economics and											X
1306 Econometrics										X		X
1307 Modelling and Optimization										X

X – Mandatory Precedence

R – Recommended Precedence