APPLICATION INFORMATION

	Semester 1	Semester 2
Term Dates	August - December	January - May
Exchange Nomination Deadline (Univerity)	20 March	1 September
Extended Nomination Deadline (Business School)	4 April	14 September
Exchange Application Deadline	10 April	22 September
Application Outcome via Offer Email	Mid-June	End November
Recommended Arrival Date	Last week of July	First week of January

The medium of instruction in NUS is English. Exchange students must be proficient in English language in order to benefit from their studies at NUS. Proof of English Language Proficiency is not required as long as the nominated exchange students have taken business courses conducted in English at the home university before the Student Exchange Programme.

Application for incoming exchange students are online. Exchange students must submit an application during the application period in the Online Application Portal (myapplications.nus.edu.sg).

Please read the general instructions (www.nus.edu.sg/registrar/prospective-students/non-graduating/coursework) before proceeding to apply online.

VISA (STUDENT'S PASS)

Exchange students who have been accepted to NUS will receive instructions via the offer email/letter for the Student's Pass application. Students who need a visa to enter Singapore will receive an In-Principle Approval (IPA) letter via email from NUS Registrar's Office and can use the letter as a single-trip entry visa. All other students you will only need to show your passport and disembarkation card to get through Singapore immigration. You will be given the stamped IPA letter on the date of registration at NUS and you need the letter to collect your Student's Pass from Immigration & Checkpoints Authority.

Please see "Incoming Exchangers \ After Applying \ Step 4: Student's Pass Application" in www.nus.edu.sg/gro/global-programmes/student-exchange/incoming-exchangers for details.

ACADEMIC MATTERS

Academic Calendar

Classes are usually conducted over 13 instructional weeks with a recess week at mid-semester. Examination follows after 1 week of reading week. Please visit www.nus.edu.sg/registrar/calendar for NUS Academic Calendar.

Make-up classes may be scheduled if a class falls on a public holiday. For a list of public holidays in Singapore, please visit www.mom.gov.sg/employment-practices/public-holidays.

Modules

A typical module at NUS is with 4 modular credits (MC). A workload of 4 MC would require 10 hours of work a week, including lectures, tutorials, laboratory sessions, assignments, and independent or group study.

Class Format: Lectures, tutorials, discussion, case study, presentations, projects

Attendance: Required
Class Participation: Part of Grade
Grading: A to F
Course Load: 39 hours per semester (3 hours a week x 13 weeks)
Medium: English
Examinations: Per Instructor

For your semester at NUS, you must read minimum 12 MCs, and is allowed to read up to 20 MCs. You must ensure that you meet the module prerequisites. Please check with your home university to ensure modules taken at NUS could be recognised by your home university.

You will be enrolled in 3 modules (12 MCs) during admssion. You are to participate in Module Registration exercise at the start of the semester to secure your remaining remaining workload, and for module add/drop.

Miscellaneous Student Fees (MSF) / Insurance

All full-time students are required to pay the MSF. The MSF includes the compulsory NUS Student Insurance scheme which provides all full time students with basic medical and personal accident insurance coverage.

All registered NUS students (including Non-Graduating Exchange students) will be covered under a blanket travel insurance. This insurance covers students for official NUS trips taken during exchange. It is highly recommended that exchange students purchase personal travel insurance for their own travel.
