Migration Issues	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • If mobility period is for a full academic year (more than 180 days) or your country requires visa for your student to travel to Mexico, the original acceptance letter will be send to your international office, with the information requested by the Mexican Embassy/Consulate. Student visa is mandatory. • If mobility period is for one semester (less than 180 days) there is no need to get a student visa, unless student’s country requires a visa to travel to Mexico.
Numbers of accepted exchange students	The number of accepted exchange students is set by agreements between the partner university and UNAM. If a partner university would like to send more students than expected, please contact us.
Living Expenses per month	Living costs in Mexico City are approximately $10,000 MXN pesos per month ($500 USD per month). This calculation is based on: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Housing approx. $2500-$4500 MX pesos (approx.$150 to $300 USD)per month • Food and groceries approx. $3000 MX pesos (approx. $200 USD) • Public transportation (depending on distance to campus) $700 MX pesos ($40 USD approx.) • Books and other materials (depending on study area)
Accommodation	There is no student residence at UNAM. Full information on accommodation is send to all accepted students in advance. They register through CEPE website (Teaching Center for Foreigners) to find individual rooms or shared rooms in a house, etc. CEPE visits and approves all options and students have our support and advice. www.cepe.unam.mx consult Services – Accommodation (“Alojamiento”).
UNAMigo program	Recently created, UNAMigo program consists on assigning one UNAM student to each one or two exchange students, who will be their host from their arrival in campus until the end of the mobility period. They will support students with advice regarding school registration, study methods, safety, transportation, food, campus, moving across the city and participation at activities organized by DGECI (International Office).
International Health Insurance	Insurance does not need to be purchase through our institution. Medical and Travel Insurance Policy is mandatory for each student and must be contracted before travelling to Mexico . It must be valid during the complete length of stay in the country. Coverage is to include all medical attention and services, hospital, accidents, attention in case of a disease, major health expenses and repatriation expenses without any exception . Health insurance coverage is mandatory for enrolment at UNAM.
